Subject: Chat with David G.

David: I'd be interested in discussing facebook's IPO at some point...
David: it seems to be a significant factor in the larger narrative we've reached a consensus on me: what narrative?
David: anonymous, occupy, attention-based economy, asynchronous chat, digital natives, bottom-up many-to-many broadcasting, crowdsourcing, legalizing weed, legalizing gay marriage, doing away with intellectual property law
David: the enlightenment, the revolution, the singularity me: that me: is pretty comprehensive David: it is.
David: facebook's kinda central to the whole narrative, for good or bad David: so is google, for that matter me: I have to go sleep, it's 4 here and need to wake up, but send me an e-mail or catch up with me tomorrow
David: I should add 'social justice', 'sustainability' 'ending poverty globally' and 'ending war' to that narrative.
David: okay. Will do, good night
